Reflection is looking back
seeing the answers-- answers drifting
into who what when where

In Memoriam To Horace G. Nelson

His spirit is with us yet, caught in the clenched fists of hundreds whose lives have been brightened by the flame of his torch. A memory, an idea remains but the best is lost, for he was taken in the prime of his life, in the full strength of his years, and the void of his departure shall not soon be forgotten.

These gracious halls shall feel his tread no more but they cannot forget his influence upon those who sat at his feet. We shall not forget this man for he has left his mark upon us in a world that cries out for dedicated men who ask only that they serve.

*Dedicated to a man who by remembering
the joys and heartaches
of his own youth
helped to develop the youth of today
into mature adults
of tomorrow . . .
Mr. John D. Withrow*

*Dedicated To
John D. Withrow*

Remember me
after we have gone away gone far away to some distant land
when we no more can walk hand in hand
this memory
free of contamination is an exquisite treasure
a beautiful source of pure refreshment

*There appears always a black spot in our sunshine—
it is the shadow of ourselves
Follow a shadow;
it glides before you
fly above one;
it pursues you*

*A soul without reflection
is like a book without words
The scholar reflects
before he speaks
while the fool speaks
and then reflects
on what he has said*

What footsteps we do follow
what footsteps we leave behind what patterns we are what patterns we form

Reflections are the cabinets of imagination
the store houses of reason the registers of conscience
the treasuries of thought

*My first dream of the year came;
I kept it a secret
and sighed to myself.
Recollection is the only paradise on this earth from which no one can be turned away.*

*Do not lose
the youthful memories of today
but capture them forever
in the caverns of your mind.*

Thought sees beauty-- emotion feels it-- reflection keeps it

The world is a looking-glass giving back to each man
the reflection of his own face frown at it--
it looks sourly upon you laugh at and with it--
it is a happy companion

Homecoming Queen of 1969-70

She walks in Beauty, like the night
Of cloudless climes and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes:
Thus mellowed to that tender light
Which Heaven to gaudy day denies.
Lord Byron

Debbie Davis, Queen.

In Memoriam

Philip Wayne McCuiston

The exuberant athlete,
The inexhaustible supply of laughter;
Wayne—the sincere Wayne;
—the generous Wayne;
—the proud Wayne;
Indestructable traits of maturity
were his.

A broadened smile;
With happiness
Beaming out all over—
Wanting to make friends:
Making friends—
Living the role of an “Outdoorsman”
Being generous and sympathetic to all who knew him.

Keith Willard Pearman

A lank, thin stature—
That embodied the essentials for manhood;
A carefree awareness—
That exemplified unfailing concern;
A witty sensibility—
That brought joy to his friends—
Pride to his family—
And admiration to himself.

Larry Nolan Tuttle

entertainment through the "Lime-light", aiding faculty members, helping fellow students through Anchor scholarships, and other worthwhile activities.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Precision-Packed Eagle Power!

Working together as a well-oiled machine, the nineteen sixty nine varsity football team attained the honor of being one of the three top squads in the county. Although they did not gain a berth in the 4-A finals, this loss came from the flip of a coin and not from playing ability, for East's gridiron skill was verified time and time again.

After endless hours of practice under a broiling summer sun, the East Eagles faced their first conference opponent, Winston-Salem Atkins, well prepared, both offensively and defensively. Although East was not favored highly, the Eagles upset the Camels for their first conference win. However, it was on this night that East's dire plague of injuries began. Atkins downed the Eagles starting quarterback, Bruce Robbins, and he was unfortunately assisted off the field with a broken arm. Junior Warren immediately replaced Robbins as quarterback, and almost instantly, Atkins removed Warren from East's roster for the night. Finally, in stepped Randy Beeson, who sent on to prove that it is skill, not size, that attributes to a player's worth. No one player was the sole factor in East's many victories, for the Eagles operated effectively as a team, and it was this outstanding teamwork that accounted for East's triumphs.

The Eagles soared after their Atkins victory, going on to win game after game. East played hard and well in their decisive game with Reynolds, earning the respect of the Reynolds' coach. Although this game resulted in a slight marginal victory for Reynolds, it was East's only conference defeat, and the 4-A position was split between Atkins, Reynolds, and East. Atkins went off to the 4-A finals, but nineteen sixty nine will be known in East football annals as the year we lost by the flip of a coin.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Compulsion to Conquer Fires Team Forward

Influential people in all phases of football are the coaches and spectators. East's fine coaches, Carl Clarke, Ben Hunnicutt, and Charles Morton, dedicated many hours to the training, improvement, and support of the players. Along with the boys, they braved the cold and rain, felt the anxieties, and experienced the ecstasy that comes with the knowledge that your team is one of the best. Evidently, this also was the feeling of the hundreds of spectators who came to cheer their Eagles on to victory. Nineteen sixty nine was an eventful year in football, for Eagle players and spectators alike.

East's defense proves hard to lick!

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

J.V.'s—Got What It Takes!

Coach Morton tells it like it is.

Maybe a coincidence or maybe a good omen, during the nineteen sixty nine season, it seemed that every junior varsity football victory was a forerunner of an upcoming varsity win. But is was evident that there was nothing mysterious about why the J.V.'s won. They simply played good, hard football, however, this is not so simple, as any J.V. can tell you. The junior varsity practiced during the late summer months along side the varsity. They played with determination to prove themselves worthy of being varsity material in the following years. Coaches Alan Morton and Robert

Hicks instructed their players in the mechanics of fine football playing and the Baby Eagles indicated by their many victories that they had learned their lesson well. Sparked by admirable performances by such players as Richard Warren, David Marshall, Joe Bleckley, and Allen Sloan, the East J.V.'s leave the impression that nineteen seventy will hold a tough varsity squad for East Forsyth. The East J.V.'s have earned an honorable spot in junior varsity football for East Forsyth by their Group II title.

Reach for the sky!
Seemingly the motto
for the '69 Baby
Eagles.

Eagles battle for rebounds.

Speed and skill are two of the most important capabilities a basketball player can possess. Also, as many shorter players can testify, height makes a difference in rebounding and blocking shots.

Demon double, toil and trouble.

Junior Warren fires a shot.

Blood, Sweat, and Tears

When a team lacks height, they are at a disadvantage, but often they make up for it with speed, skill, and long hours of practice. This was the case of the East Forsyth Eagles during the nineteen sixty nine-seventy season. The Eagles learned the important lesson that only complete team effort can insure victory and they worked well together. Every man played an important part and he knew when and how to play his role.

Returning from last year, Randy Beeson directed the action for the team, staying out of the lane and waiting patiently for the good shots that build the score. Beeson's experience at fast breaks down the court and accurate shooting ability counted greatly in anxious moments. Junior Warren, Richard Sides, and Ronnie Smith, all returning from the previous varsity team, added their experience to the games. All three racked up points and Warren's height was a valuable asset in rebounding and guarding. Bobby Arrington, also a veteran, put in a lot of effort as he helped to raise the score in East's favor. The new men on this year's team attacked with determination and pumped in points from tough outside positions.

Although the Eagle Varsity Squad met defeats at times, the Eagles never said die and fought until the last second with stamina and devotion to the honor of the East Forsyth Eagles. Through all their endeavors, both in victories and defeats, they performed in true East spirit.

Moment of decision.

Team Flies High—Baby Eagles Soar!

FRONT ROW Randy Whicker, Dwight Snow, Gary Pegg, David Landreth, SECOND ROW Hunter Atkins, Barry McGee, Derek Perry, Bobby Boyan, BACK ROW Gary Idol, Delvin Idol, Mark Surratt, Clavis Fulton, Carl Chambers

It was quickly discovered by the East junior varsity basketball team that high school basketball requires a lot of skill, ability, agility, and speed. The requirements were tough, but the J.V. team measured up to them readily. The squad, after long hours of practice, hit the hardwood with the goal of showing just what Baby Eagles can do.

Basketball . . . mindsticker eight days a week!

Gotta' have two points!!

Making every minute COUNT!

The finest of three schools came together and soon reached the point of performing together as a skilled junior varsity team, all playing together as one school under one banner. The Baby Eagles worked at improving their shooting ability, rebounding and over-all performance, both at hitting the basket and defending it. Victory for the junior varsity squad was both welcomed and well-deserved.

Funny how there's always someone there to block your shot.

Eagles take to the air!

Baseball is a game of speed and skill and whatever the umpire says goes, no matter how much the coach argues. A good slide sometimes makes the difference of being safe or out.

Spring is welcomed by the crack of a bat or the splitting of air, whatever the case may be, with the game of baseball. However, practice was begun months before with the lifting of weights and exercises designed to build muscles for smashing homeruns and fielding grounders. Returning to the team were many lettermen along with numerous players coming up from junior varsity. Baseball is the game for all boys, regardless of size, if they have the will, ability, and speed. East Forsyth's team looked good as they racked up runs for their school.

Making sure we get runs . . .

. . . making sure they don't.

Run, run, run!! See Dan run!

TRACK TEAM

Straining Sinews Blazing Breath— a Weary Winner

Track—the sport where speed and endurance are neccessities.

Returning seniors Danny Robertson, Phil Coleman, Mike Fulp, Sam Crews and Robby Dunnagan added their experience and form to the team, working with and encouraging the entire team. Track is a rugged sport that demands top performance in every phase. To win, one must know when to hold back, or excel and to be able to keep going when every ounce of strength seems sapped. Although track meets are held in spring, before Christmas the Eagles began conditioning their bodies, running lap after lap in the auditorium. Coached by Alan Morton, the track boys are, and must be, a dedicated group. Their performance and devotion to their sport are true qualities of Eagles and although track is not regarded as a spectator sport, it is one that deserves our pride and recognition.

Ultimate Test of Endurance

Hours and days of practice—running and more running, not for the sake of skill, but for endurance, the ability to keep running that last stretch. Cross-country is the sport of burning lungs, dripping brows, and pounding chests. Two of the cross-country leaders, Steve Summerford and Mike Fulp, paced the team over hills, through gulleys, on turf and on concrete. Only the strongest place near the front and the Eagles know what it is like to be there. Also returning from last year's team to set the pace for the new members were Mitch Stevens, Daniel Martin, Glenn Reeves, Frank Scott, Jigger Webb, and Tim Montgomery. East finished well in many meets and for their determination and dedication, they have proven the might of the Eagles.

The start is important in any race and to get out in front then increases chances to stay there. As seen here, the Eagles have learned this and are putting it into practice.

Vigor and Vitality Service With a Smile

The hub of almost all spirit-minded activities of any school are its cheerleaders. To smile when the home team is losing is a hard job, but the East cheerleaders have done so through the many victories as well as defeats. The mechanics of the cheers are sometimes difficult and the girls spend much time practicing. They are the gist of all pep rallies and most of the spirit boosting banners are painted and hung around campus by the bubbling young ladies in the blue and white uniforms. In any game, spectators must boost the team, and our cheerleaders do the job of boosting the spectators. However, this is sometimes a hard and thankless job. The Eagle cheerleaders give of their time, talents, and spirit to make their team one to be proud of, for they are proud of it, and we are proud of them.

Our Junior Varsity cheerleaders are the best from three schools and this is what makes them great. They aid in boosting school spirit, along with the varsity, and urge the J.V.'s on to victory. Although attendance at some of the games is small, the J.V. cheerleaders are always there, cheering the Baby Eagles on to victory. “So Fine” Soul Sounds!

Ask anyone what group really makes a halftime show in football season, or adds that real zest to a pep rally, and they will probably answer that it is the band. East's marching band puts in a lot of practice and time to present the fine performances they give during football halftime. To continually keep in precision step and perfect timing is a difficult job, as any band member can assure you, but the Marching Eagles do so with skill and grace. However, it is evident that they enjoy themselves as they play favorite East High melodies and keep cold spirits in cotton candy moods. Theirs is an essential and sometimes thankless job, of which East is proud.

MARCHING BAND

Marching Band Music to Win By

Performing along with the band are the majorettes, Susan Meredith, Carol Naylor, Becky Noah, Teresa Walters, Marilyn Welch, Donna Whitener, Claudeen Gilchrist, and Carmen

Griffin. To combine grace and timing on a cold, crisp, fall night is a job well done.

WRESTLING TEAM

Wrestling Team Vows To Have and To HOLD!

Wrestling is the sport for all boys, regardless of size, or strength, for there is a class for everyone. All chances are even and a pin rests on one's endurance, ability, and knowledge of holds. The East wrestling team, coached by Ben Hunnicutt, contributes much time to practice in efforts to continue to improve the team. Wrestling is one of the oldest sports known, and the East wrestlers have shown that it is still as exciting and interesting a sport as any.

Coach Ben Hunnicutt in silent repose.

FRONT ROW Daryl Bennett, Ronnie Boone, Larry Cason, Mike Elum, BACK ROW Ben Pettus, Garland Wright, Joe Bill Ellender, Ricky Kennedy, David Skeen

Say "uncle", please say "uncle"!

GOLF TEAM

Eagle Golfers Prove 'Par for the Course'

To shoot under eighty is a feat worthy of praise, and the Eagle golf team has proved its worth. Coached by Mr. Carl Clarke, the team practices on their own time for they both enjoy and want to improve their game. Golf is a sport with many avid participants and calls for skill and close attention. East's team is quite up to par.

If only Arnie could see me now.

Mona Dale, Steve Sapp, Kim Jones, Danny Holder, Sandy Tilley

Truly devoted to the game, Kim Jones practices in the snow.

TENNIS TEAM

Their Goal Is To “Serve”!

Tennis, known as the gentleman's game, requires skill, agility, and most of all, speed. The team members put in many hours of practice to improve these qualities and their efforts have certainly been rewarded. Returning players from last year's team, Greg Slaydon, and Daniel Brannock, worked along with and gave support to new members of the team.

Tennis is an interesting sport and the East team combined pleasure with sport as they secured additional victories under the East banner.

Bob Sullivan demonstrates the ol' "back-scratcher" serve.

Daniel Brannock returns with a quick backhand.

*A wise man is he who can reflect back
and learn from his mistakes.*

*His mind is like a glass;
it admits the light of heaven
and reflects it.
Solitude and tranquility
are the mind's best planning ground*

*The crunch of snow underfoot is heard as two figures stroll past with skates hanging limply
from their free hand.
Whispers of love
will echo through the air
until the winds cease to blow.*

*His shadow met hers
and both lengthened
in the setting sun.*

*By discreet thought,
conversation, and observation,
man can store up
hidden sources of wisdom,
beauty, and truth.*

*Much better by far that you should forget
and smile
than to remember and be sad*

 It's been great this year. It's been "rough" dodging your spit wads. You nicked me once or twice, but never really splatted me. (Keep on a gunning i cause all lizards do) and I'll see ya next year or maybe this summer! Stay Sweet!

Jigger,
I think that French class has been the ~~to~~ craziest class in the world.
We had a lot of fun together with paper, mirrors and other assorted nasty things.
I hope you have a good time
this summer and any time you want to run my fire-breathing pontiac let me know.

Keep up the good work
on shooting those wells;
Hope you flunk Math. Now that I am gone stop acting so stupid. Grow up and get a gal. Remember this word and you will know who it is. (Boy)

Jigger,
Algebra wouldn't have been the same without you in there. I sure do hope you pass for the year, cause I know how it is to take Algebra for 2 years. You still have another year to live at East and I'll be at ASU trying to scoop up all I can.
If you try to scoop on "you know who" I wish you good luck. I'll get over to your house soon this summer and we can go out and raise heck.
